

History of the United States I: Early Colonization to 1877 ACE

8 Modules + 1 Final Exam Module / Credit-by-Course / 3 Credits

Course Description:

History of the United States I covers the period of United States history from the first civilizations and early European colonization to the end of Reconstruction, roughly in 1877. The course moves through content chronologically. US History is broad in scope, and we will focus on important events and developments while identifying multiple voices and contrasting perspectives. As a theme, the course asks that we recognize diversity throughout American History while connecting the past with the present.

Course Objectives:

After completing this course, you will be able to:

- Interpret areas of historical significance and developments from the first civilizations of North America and early European colonization to the end of Reconstruction, roughly in 1877.
- Recognize major events which led to the development of the United States, including social and political movements.
- Compare and contrast matters of United States history- social, political, economic, and cultural and how those events affected the development of American society.
- Apply thematic events throughout the historical periods studied, including their impact on modern events.
- Distinguish how various social, political, cultural, and economic events encouraged political participation and civic engagement in the United States.
- Recognize diversity throughout American History while connecting the past with the present.

E-Book:

Title: U.S.: A Narrative History, 9th edition, by Davidson, James West, et al., McGraw-Hill Education.

Open Educational Resources (OER's)

If you are struggling with a term or concept, you can utilize the links below to search for the concept or term to find additional resources and explanations.

[Link Removed]

Hippocampus: U.S. History

(<http://www.hippocampus.org/HippoCampus/History%20%26%20Government>)

KHAN Academy: U.S. History (<https://www.khanacademy.org/humanities/us-history>)

Digital History: ERAS, Topics, Resources, References (<http://www.digitalhistory.uh.edu/>)

Free Online Course by Modern States Education Alliance
(<https://modernstates.org/course/history-of-the-united-states-i/>)

Gilder Lehrman Institute of American History (<https://www.gilderlehrman.org/>)

U.S. History Pre-Columbian to the New Millennium (<http://www.ushistory.org/us/>)

History Matters: The U.S. Survey Course on the Web (<http://historymatters.gmu.edu/>)

Annenberg's A Biography of America Telecourse
(<https://www.learner.org/series/a-biography-of-america/>)

The Crash Course: US History (<http://thecrashcourse.com/courses/ushistory>)

Closed Captioning

Lecture videos and extra resource videos have automatic closed captioning. These captions are generated by computer algorithms. To utilize closed captioning, you can click on the CC button at the bottom of a video.

Accommodating Student Disabilities

Gateway Education is committed to the belief that every individual should have an equal opportunity in education. Gateway Education seeks to assure access by providing accommodations to individuals with a disability as defined under the Americans with Disabilities Act of 1990 (ADA) and the ADA Amendments Act of 2008 (ADAAA). Accommodation includes, but is not limited to: aids or modification to courses, materials, or testing; and other services that allow better access by individuals with disabilities.

Individuals requesting accommodation should submit a request in writing or in an alternative format appropriate for their limitations. The request should include documentation of the disability, including information with recommendations of appropriate accommodation. Once eligibility has been established, accommodations must be requested on a course-by-course basis.

Requests can be sent to the student services department at help@gatewayeducation.com